

SEEKING SPRING INTERNS!

Asia Heritage Foundation is seeking Spring Interns for the 7th Annual National Asian Heritage Festival. The month-long festival includes many components including our Signature Event - Fiesta Asia Street Fair, Fiesta Asia Film Fest, Fiesta Asia Planet Family as well as many other unique events leading up to the festival month. The street fair is an exciting event, free and open to the public, including attractions such as an open market filled with an assortment of Asian merchandise, live performances, Pan-Asian cuisine, interactive displays, and much more. 2012 street fair will be held on Saturday, May 19 2012 on Pennsylvania Avenue between Third and Sixth Streets NW. The festival has attendance of over 20,000 people in past years! You will gain valuable experience and skills planning a large-scale event and have opportunities to work with diverse groups of professionals, volunteers, communities, media, and performers from the Metropolitan Washington area and beyond. The festival comprises of multiple programs and events that requires support and effort on all fronts. We are a small yet highly enthusiastic and friendly group of people and lots of fun to work with! If you are love culture, diversity, festivals, people and hard work, you'll fit right in!

We are currently searching for enthusiastic and energetic individuals that can help in the following areas:

- Database expansion & management
- Marketing & promotion
- Grassroots community outreach
- Social media projects
- Special events planning & management
- Cultural arts & crafts projects (artistic design skills)
- Photography & Video Production
- Vendors & participants recruitment
- Website support
- Volunteer recruitment

And many more!

Commitment required: At least 5-10 hours per week. Additional time commitment is welcome. Interested party please send resume and email to info@asiaheritagefoundation.org